Dialogic Reconstruction of Memory (DRM)

Dialogic Reconstruction of Memory is a type of Dialogue of Memories which frees the human capacity to rebuild memories through dialogue, as memory has shown to be not a static construct but one that is continuously evolving through social interaction. This leads to a series of modifications and opens up possibilities for freedom and personal transformation.

To cite this reference:

Puigvert, L., Racionero, S. & Flecha R. (2020). Definition of Dialogic Reconstruction of Memory. This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution- NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0International License. Available in: https://archive.org/details/@crea_research